

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CHAPTER CLVI.

LAWS 1894.

An act to establish boards of county park commissioners, and to define their powers and duties.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey :

1. That in any county with more than two hundred thousand population, it shall be lawful for the justice of the supreme court presiding in the courts of such county to appoint five persons, to be known as the ——county park commissioners, who shall hold their office for two years from the date of their appointment, and shall serve without compensation ; and if vacancies happen by resignation or otherwise, such vacancies may be filled by such justice, and the persons appointed to supply such vacancies shall be appointed for the unexpired terms only ; said commissioners shall consider the advisability of laying out ample open spaces for the use of the public in such county, and shall have authority to make maps and plans of such spaces, and to collect such other information in relation thereto as the said board may deem expedient, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be within the term aforesaid, make a report in writing of a comprehensive plan for laying out, acquiring and maintaining such open spaces.

Justice of Supreme Court shall appoint.

Commissioners shall receive no compensation. Vacancies shall be filled for unexpired terms only.

Duties of Commissioners.

SEC. 2. That said commissioners may employ such assistants as they may deem necessary and may expend such sums therefor and in the discharge of their duties, including the actual traveling expenses of said members, as they may deem expedient, not exceeding, however, the sum of ten thousand dollars; and such expenditures shall, from time to time, be certified by said board to the said justice of the supreme court, who, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, shall order the payment of the same by the board of chosen freeholders of such county, who shall order the county collector to pay the same out of the funds appropriated or to be appropriated for the maintenance of highways and bridges in such county or of any unexpended balance.

May employ assistants. Traveling expenses may be paid. Expenditures shall be certified to. Board of Chosen Freeholders.

SEC. 3. That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved May 8, 1894.

CHAPTER XCI.

LAWS 1895.

An Act to establish public parks in certain counties in this state, and to regulate the same.

Justice of Supreme Court shall appoint Commissioners.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey :

Justice shall fill vacancies.

Board constituted a body politic.

No compensation allowed.

Employees shall not be members.

Board shall choose its own officers and em-

1. That in any county of this state containing a population of more than two hundred thousand it shall be the duty of the justice of the supreme court presiding in the courts of such county, as hereinafter provided, to appoint five persons a board of commissioners to be known as "the _____county park commission" (inserting the name of the county in and for which such commissioners are appointed); the commissioners first appointed under the provisions of this act in any county shall hold office respectively for the term of one, two, three, four and five years, as indicated and fixed in the order of appointment, and all such commissioners, after the first appointment, shall be so appointed for the full term of five years; vacancies in the said board happening by resignation or otherwise shall be filled by such justice, and the persons appointed to fill such vacancies shall be appointed for the unexpired term only; such persons so appointed, when duly qualified, constituting such board of park commissioners, and their successors, are hereby created a body politic, with power to sue and be sued, to use a common seal and to make by-laws; the members of any such board shall serve without compensation; their necessary expenses shall be allowed and paid, and no person employed by the said board shall be a member thereof; before entering upon the duties of his office, each of the members of said board shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties of his office, which oath or affirmation shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the board of which he is a member is appointed; every such board shall annually choose from among its members a president, vice-president and treasurer, and appoint a clerk or secretary, and such other officers and employees as it may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this act; it may also determine the duties and compensation of such appointees and remove them at pleasure, and make all reasonable rules and regulations respecting the same; every such board shall have a suitable office, where its maps, plans, documents, records and accounts shall be kept, subject to public inspection, at such times and under such reasonable regulations as the board may determine.

2. [Amended by Chapter LI, Acts 1899, to read as follows:] That every such board shall have power to acquire, maintain and make available to the inhabitants of the county wherein it is appointed, and to the public, parks and open spaces for public resort and recreation, and shall have power to locate within the limits of said county such public parks and places, and for these purposes shall have power to take in fee or otherwise, by purchase, gift, devise or eminent domain, lands and rights in lands for public parks and open spaces within said county; deeds of conveyance therefor shall be made to the said board by its corporate name, and it shall be the duty of such board to preserve and care for, lay out and improve any such parks and places, and to make rules for the use and government of the same; such board shall have power also to connect any road, park, or public open space with any other park or public open space, and also with any city or municipality of the said county by a suitable roadway or boulevard, and for such purpose shall have power to exercise any of the rights and powers granted by this act in the manner herein prescribed, and also to take or acquire in fee or otherwise in the corporate name of the said board for the benefit of the said county, by purchase, gift, devise or eminent domain, any lands or rights in land, and easements or interests in lands within the said county, although the lands so taken, or any part thereof, be already a street or way, and to construct and maintain along, across and upon and over the same, or any other land acquired by the said board under this maps to public inspection until it has taken proceedings to condemn lands or rights in lands necessary therefor.

4. That when the said board shall deem it proper to acquire lands or rights in lands for any public park or place which they have located, as herein provided, and the said board or its agents duly authorized cannot agree with the owner or owners of such lands and rights in lands, as to the price and terms of the purchase thereof, or when by the legal incapacity or absence of such owner or owners, no agreement can be made for the purchase thereof, a description in writing of the lands or rights in lands so desired, with the name or names of the occupants, if any there be; and of the owner or owners, and other parties interested, if known, and their residences, if the same can be ascertained, by the board or its agents, shall be presented to one of the justices of the supreme court of this state, who shall thereupon cause such board to give notice thereof to the persons interested, if known, and in this state, or if unknown, or cannot be found, or out of this state, to make publication thereof as he shall direct, for any period not less than ten days; and assign a particular time and place for the appointment of commissioners as hereinafter provided, at which time, upon satisfactory evidence to him of the service or publication of such notice, he shall appoint under his hand three impartial and judicious freeholders, residents in the county in which such lands or rights in lands are situate, to examine and appraise the said lands or rights in lands and assess the damages, upon such notice to be given to the persons interested as shall be directed by the justice making such appointment, not less than ten days; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners (having first taken and subscribed an oath or affirmation before some person duly authorized to administer the same, faithfully and impartially to examine the matter in question, and to make a true report and appraisement as aforesaid in writing, according to the best of their skill and understanding) to meet at the time and place appointed, and to proceed to view and examine the lands or rights in lands, and to make a just and equitsaid county, upon application made therefor, and every

and all of such payments to the clerk shall be equivalent to payment to the parties entitled thereto, and shall operate to transfer the title of the said lands or said rights in lands to the said board, as if payment was made directly to the said parties; provided always, that should the said board, or the owner or owners of said lands or rights in lands feel aggrieved by the report and award of the said commissioners, they, or either of them, may appeal from the said appraisement and award in respect to their interests therein, to the next circuit court of the county wherein the said lands are situate.

Proviso.

5. That every appeal from the appraisement and award of the said commissioners shall be made in the form of a petition to the said court, and notice thereof shall be given to the other parties within fifteen days after the filing of the commissioners' report and award, which proceedings shall vest in the circuit court the authority and power to hear and determine the question of the value of the land or rights in lands and the damages sustained, if any, and thereupon the said court shall direct a proper issue to be framed between the said parties for the trial of the said question, and order a jury to be struck for the trial of the same,
and a view to be had of the premises by the said jury, and the said issue shall be tried upon like notice and in like manner as other issues of fact are tried in said court, and it shall be the duty of the said jury to assess the value of the said land in question or rights in land, and the damages sustained, if any; and the party or parties appealing shall recover costs in such suit, if they shall succeed at the trial on the appeal in changing the valuation or assessment in his, her or their favor, and shall pay costs, if they shall fail so to do, but no appeal shall prevent the said board from taking the land upon filing the commissioners' report and award, and payment or tender to the parties of the amount thereof, as herein provided; that upon the verdict of the jury fixing the value of the lands or rights in lands and damages, the court shall enter judgment for the amount thereof, with or without interest and costs, according to the provisions of this act and the principles of law applicable to the trial of similar issues in other cases, and the judgment so entered shall be the sum which the owner or owners and other persons interested are entitled to have from the said board for the said lands or rights in lands and damages, and may be enforced in manner and form similar to other cases in which judgment is pronounced in the said court, and when the commissioners' award is paid by the said board into court, as hereinbefore provided, it shall be the duty of the court to order the moneys so paid into court applied to the payment of the said judgment, and the surplus, if any, repaid to the said board.

6. That the said board shall have power and authority not only to lay out and open roadways, parkways and boulevards, connecting parks and open spaces as herein provided, but shall have authority to establish the grade of such highways, and change and alter the same, to grade, curb, flag, pave and otherwise improve the said parkways, roadways and boulevards, and to regulate the use thereof.

Board may establish, change or alter grade of highways, and improve same.

Notice of opening or improvement of roadways to be advertised.

Appointment of Commissioners to condemn lands for such boulevards, etc

7. That whenever the said board shall determine to open and lay out a boulevard, parkway or roadway, or to make any improvement thereof which shall require the condemnation of lands or rights in lands, the said board shall give notice by publication, at least ten days, in one or more of the newspapers circulating in the county wherein the lands to be condemned are situate, of its intention to apply to the circuit court of the said county for the appointment of three disinterested commissioners to make an appraisement of the value of the lands and rights in lands necessary to be taken in the judgment of the said commissioners, and the damages occasioned thereby, for the opening and laying out of any boulevard or roadway, or for the improvement thereof; and also to ascertain, fix and determine the amount of the special benefits which the laying out of the said street or the improvement thereof will confer upon any owner of property benefited thereby; and at the time and place specified in such notice the said court shall appoint three disinterested freeholders resident in the said county to make a just and true appraisement of the value of the lands or rights in lands to be condemned and taken by the said board, for the purposes specified in the said notice and the damages, and also to make a just and true estimate and appraisement of the special or peculiar benefits which the opening of any such boulevard, parkway or roadway, or the improvement thereof, may confer upon any owner of property benefited thereby, in proportion, as nearly as may be, to the benefit which each owner may be deemed to acquire; and the said commissioners, when so appointed, shall forthwith take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties imposed upon them by law, and such oath or affirmation shall be filed in the office of the clerk of said county; and the said commissioners shall fix a time and place when they will hear the persons interested in the property to be taken and appropriated as aforesaid and in the benefits to be conferred by the proposed improvement, of which time and place public notice shall be given by the said commissioners for at least ten days prior to the day of meeting in two or more of the newspapers published and circulating in the said county, and after having viewed the premises and heard the parties interested, the said commissioners shall proceed to estimate and fix the value of the lands and rights in lands taken and the damages caused by such taking, and also ascertain and determine the amount of special or peculiar benefits conferred upon the owners of property benefited by the said opening or improvement, in proportion, as nearly as may be, to the benefits which each owner shall be deemed to acquire, and to make report of their assessments to said court; the said commissioners may report the damages awarded and the benefits assessed in any case in the same report or separately as they may determine, and upon the coming in of any such report, signed by the said commissioners, or any two of them, the said court shall cause such notice to be given as it shall direct of the time and place of hearing any objections that may be made to such award or assessment, and after hearing any matter which may be alleged against the same, the said court shall, by rule or order, either confirm the said report or refer the same to the same commissioners for revision and correction ; and the said commissioners shall return the same, when referred to them again, corrected and revised, or make new report thereof to the said court without unnecessary delay, and the same, on being so returned, shall be confirmed or again referred by the said court in manner aforesaid, as right and justice may require, and so from time to time until a report shall be made or returned in the premises, which the said court shall confirm, and such report, when so confirmed, shall be final and conclusive, as well upon the said board of commissioners as upon the owners of any land and real estate, or rights therein affected thereby, and the said court shall thereupon cause said report so confirmed to be filed in the office of the clerk of said county, there to remain of record ; and the said court shall have power and authority to make such rules for the regulation of the practice and procedure under this act as shall be deemed expedient and consistent with its provisions ; the said court shall, upon application made by the said board or on its behalf, fix and determine the compensation to be paid the commissioners so appointed, and allow any other expense necessarily incurred in making any such assessment, all which shall be paid by the said board of park commissioners ; provided, how-ever, that the cost and expense of making any assessment for benefits, including the fees of commissioners, may be included in making up the entire cost for the purpose of such assessment.

8. That in every case in which damages are awarded under the provisions of this act to an owner or owners of lands, and benefits are assessed against the same owner or owners, it shall be lawful for the said board, when both the award of damages and the assessment of benefits have been finally confirmed, to deduct the amount of the benefits assessed from the damages awarded, and to set off such benefits against such damages by proper charges and credits, in order that the excess of damages, if any, shall be paid, and the excess of benefits, if any, only collected.

9. That any person or persons to whom an award shall be made as aforesaid, subject to the deductions for benefits assessed as aforesaid, may sue for and collect the said award after the same shall have been confirmed as aforesaid, in an action of debt against the said board in any court of competent jurisdiction, and a certified copy of the award so made shall be presumptive evidence of the claim sued upon.

Award of benefits may be collected by suit.

10. That it shall be lawful for the said board to collect the assessments for benefits so made as aforesaid, either by a suit in an action in debt in the name of the said board against the person or persons from whom such assessment is due, together with the costs of making the same, and interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date of confirmation, or by a sale of the property benefited, or by both of the said remedies, which are to be cumulative, and every such assessment shall be a first lien upon the property benefited as ascertained by the said commissioners, to the amount of the assessment so made as aforesaid, with the interest and cost from the date of the confirmation of such assessment.

Board may collect assessments with interest and costs, by suit or sale of lands.

11. [Amended by Chapter LI, Laws 1899, to read as follows:] That whenever said board shall determine to make any improvement of any part or section or of the whole of a parkway or boulevard therefore laid out or opened by said board, which improvement may consist in grading, or in any manner of paving or surface construction or in planting with trees or shrubbery, or in any one or more, or in all of the items of construction or improvement which are or may be authorized by law, the said board shall give notice by publication, at least ten days in one or more of the newspapers circulating in the county wherein the lands to be condemned are situate, of its intention to apply to the circuit court of the said county for the appointment of three disinterested commissioners to ascertain, fix and determine the amount of the special benefits which the

13. That lands and real estate which are not bid off and sold when offered for sale, or for resale, according to the provisions of this act, shall be struck off to the said board by its corporate name for the longest term for which such sale is authorized to be made, and said board may hold said lands and real estate and sell, assign and dispose thereof and use the proceeds of the same in the same manner as directed in the case of moneys paid for benefits assessed, and such board shall have in relation to the said lands so struck off to it all the right and privileges of a purchaser at such sale.

14. That to meet the expenses incurred under the provisions of this act in addition to the sum of money received from benefit assessments as herein provided and otherwise, the board of chosen freeholders of the said county shall, from time to time, on the requisition of said board of park commissioners, in the name and on the credit of the said county, borrow money by issuing the bonds of the said county to a sum in the aggregate not exceeding two millions five hundred thousand dollars, such bonds to run for a term not exceeding fifty years, to bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum, payable semi-annually; such bonds shall not be sold or disposed of at less than their par value, and may be made payable at any place which the said board of chosen freeholders may determine, and they shall also determine the form of the bond; a sinking fund shall be established by the said board of chosen freeholders on the issuing of any such bonds sufficient, with the accumulations thereof, to extinguish the principal of the said bonds so issued when due; the interest and principal of all bonds issued under the authority of this act shall be the debt or obligation of the county wherein they are issued, and the payment thereof shall be provided for by taxation in the same manner that other debts and obligations of the county are provided for by taxation.

Bonds shall not be sold for less than par value

Chosen freeholders shall

16. That all lands taken or held under this act for the purpose of public parks shall be forever kept open and maintained as such; and no steam or other railroad shall be laid out on, or maintained or operated in or on, any portion of the parks, open spaces, boulevards, parkways or roadways laid out and located under this act, except at such places and in such manner as the said board of park commissioners shall in writing duly approve.

17. That every such board shall have power and authority to make rules and regulations for the government and use of all such parks, open spaces, boulevards, parkways and roadways, and to enforce the same by prescribing and affixing for the violation thereof suitable penalties not exceeding fifty dollars for each offense; such rules and regulations shall be plainly printed and posted within such parks and public places or on such boulevard and other highways; and the said board shall have power and authority to sue for and collect the penalty prescribed and affixed for any violation of the rules and regulations so made in an action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction; all fines and penalties recovered as aforesaid shall be used by the said board for the same purposes and in the same manner as other funds provided for its use.

18. That any city or municipality within such county, or any local board in such city or municipality, having control of the parks or streets therein, is hereby authorized and empowered to transfer the care, custody and control of any park, public place or street under its care or control to the said board of park commissioners for the purposes of this act, with its consent, which consent such board of park commissioners is hereby authorized to give.

19. That upon the appointment of commissioners in any county under the first section of this act, the commissioners appointed in any such county under the act entitled "An act to establish boards of county park commissioners, and to define their powers and duties," approved May eighth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, shall turn over to the board appointed under this act all their maps, plans and other property, and their powers shall terminate, except for the purpose of closing up their work.

20. That all acts and parts of acts both general and special inconsistent with this act be, and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that none of the foregoing provisions shall take effect in any county, nor shall the commissioners to be appointed under the provisions of this act be appointed in any county

CHAPTER VIII.

Laws 1898.

A Supplement to the act entitled "An act to establish public parks in certain counties in this state, and to regulate the same," approved March fifth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. That to meet the further expenses to be incurred under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, for the acquisition, development and improvement of parks and parkways or boulevards, in any county in this state in which said act shall be in force, and in which the sum limited in said act shall have been appropriated, the board of chosen freeholders of the said county shall, from time to time, on the requisition of the said board of park commissioners, in the name and on the credit of the said county, borrow money by issuing the bonds of the said county to a sum not exceeding, in the aggregate, one million five hundred thousand dollars, over and above the sum provided in the act to which this is a supplement; such bonds to run for a term not exceeding fifty years, to bear interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum, payable semi-annually; such bonds shall not be sold or disposed of at less than their par value, and may be made payable at any place which the said board of chosen freeholders may determine, and they shall also determine the form of the bond; a sinking fund shall be established by the said board of chosen freeholders on the issuing of any such bonds sufficient, with the accumulations thereof, to extinguish the principal of the said bonds so issued, when due; the interest and principal of the bonds issued under the authority of this act shall be the debt or obligation of the county wherein they are issued, and the payment thereof shall be provided for by taxation in the same manner that other debts and obligations of the county are provided for by taxation ; the proceeds of the sale of said bonds, after deducting expenses for negotiating the same, and for engraving and all other expenses connected with their issue and sale, shall be paid over to the said park commission.

Repealer.

2. That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed and this act shall take effect immediately ; provided, however, that no bonds shall be issued in any county pursuant to this act until the said act shall be accepted by the voters of said county by a majority of the votes cast for or against the same at the next election, whether general, municipal or special, on a day when the people of all the county qualified to vote are authorized to vote for local officers ; and it shall be the duty of the county clerk at least ten days before any such election to give public notice by publication, in two or more newspapers published and circulating in said county, that such submission will be made, stating briefly the question to be submitted, as herein provided, and it shall be the duty of the said county clerk to provide ballots sufficient in quantity for the legal voters of the said county, not less than three to each legal voter as the number of voters appears by the last preceding election, and make distribution thereof, as far as practicable, in the manner provided by law for the distribution of other ballots at such election ; every such ballot shall contain either the words "for further park bonds" or "against further park bonds" and an equal number of each kind of ballots shall be so printed and distributed ; and the legal voters of said county may at such election decide upon acceptance or rejection of this act by the use of such ballots ; such ballots shall be cast at such election separate and distinct from other ballots used at such election, and shall not, except as herein provided, be regulated by the laws regulating ballots used in the election of public officers : such ballots, however, shall be deposited, when offered, without being enclosed in an envelope, by any legal voter, in the ballot-boxes used at such election for the Act to be accepted by voters.
